

Ronald A. Curini, 90, of Allentown, passed away Sunday, September 20, 2026 at his home. Born in Trenton, he resided in Hamilton for many years before moving to Allentown in 2001. A US Army veteran, Ron graduated from Bordentown Military Institute and Pennsylvania Military College, now Widener University.

Ron worked as a real estate appraiser, establishing Ronald A. Curini Appraisal Company Inc. in 1972.

Ron was Central Chapter President of the Appraisal Institute for several years. He was SRA Designated Member of the Appraisal Institute, Certified Tax Assessor State of New Jersey, and NJ State Board of Real Estate Appraisers.

A lifelong New York Yankees fan, Ron began attending games with his father during childhood. He enjoyed playing golf, traveling with Robin, his family and friends, and visiting Italy, which he did several times. He also cherished trips to the Jersey Shore and family vacations in Ocean City. Most of all he enjoyed trips to the Caribbean with Robin.

Son of the late Robert and Marie Curini, he is survived by his wife of 42 years, N. Robin Curini; his sisters-in-law, Jane Quigley and Lorrie MacGregor; his nieces and nephews and their families, Robert Fedore and his children, Ashton, Charlie, and Wyatt, Samantha Purdy, her husband, Dan and their children, Andrew and Colin and Jack Quigley. Ron is also survived by one son.

Services are private under the direction of Pepler Funeral Home, Allentown.

Memorial contributions may be made in Ronald's name to the Dementia Society of America, 188 N Main St, Doylestown, PA 18901 or at www.dementiasociety.org.
